Obituary

Joseph McGlone

It is with sadness we report on the passing of Joe McGlone aged 81 years.

Following service with the RAF Joe joined the Admiralty Constabulary in July 1963 and was initially posted to RNAD Bandeath. After three years he moved to Faslane for a time before transferring to Lossiemouth as a Detective Constable.

During his long career with the Force Joe worked in both uniform and CID progressing through the ranks reaching Detective Chief Inspector until retiring on 20th December 1991.

Joe passed away on 15th September 2018 after a brief illness.

Shortly after his passing the family held a memorial service in Kilbirnie, Ayrshire.
