This scheme meets the demands and needs of those who wish to provide protection for the circumstances outlined in this booklet at the levels described in the schedules.

Full details of the cover included in these schedules can be found in the policy wordings which are available from the Defence Polic Federation and should be read carefully, including any limitations, exclusions and terms and conditions.

Serving Officers may join the scheme at any time providing they are actively at work in their normal occupation and number of contracted hours, have not been medically advised against working, and have not been absent from work due to ill health or injury in the 8 weeks preceding the application.

Qualifying Partners of Serving Officers may apply to join the scheme provided they can satisfy the medical declaration contained in the partner application form. Partner cover will cease immediately an officer leaves the scheme or when the officer or the partner attain age 70, whichever happens first.

Definition of Partner - a partner is defined as your legal spouse or civil partner. If you are not married or you do not have a civil partner, a person who is co-habiting with you and has done so for at least six months prior to joining the scheme and is financially dependent or interdependent with you.*

Payment of Premiums

Premiums are collected monthly by salary deduction unless alternative arrangements have been agreed. Monthly subscription payments must be maintained in order to remain a member of the scheme and to qualify for benefits.

Career breaks, maternity leave, paternity leave secondment or living overseas

Prior to any of the above applying you will need to contact the Defence Police Federation to discuss whether cover can continue and to arrange premium payment throughout the applicable period.

Transfer, resignation, or dismissal

Serving officers who transfer to another force, resign, or are dismissed from the police service are not eligible to remain in the scheme and all cover, including partner membership, will cease.

Retirement from the Police Service

Serving officers, upon retirement from the police service, may remain in the scheme as a retired member, with benefits applicable to their age. Transfer into the retired officer scheme must be agreed with the Defence Police Federation prior to retirement as individuals are not eligible to join the scheme after their retirement date. Full details of retirement cover is available from the Defence Police Federation.

How to cancel your cover

In the event that you wish to cancel your cover, please notify the Defence Police Federation via email: admin1@dpf.org.uk / admin2@dpf.org.uk

How to make a claim

Unless otherwise specified in this booklet, please contact the Defence Police Federation to make a claim. Claims should be reported as soon as practicable and, if possible, within 30 days of the incident/diagnosis. The onus is on the member to notify a claim, it is not the responsibility of the insurers to make a member aware of their entitlement to claim.

Scheme Benefits

This section gives a brief explanation of the benefits included in the scheme. Full details of cover, terms and conditions can be found in the policy wordings which are available from the Defence Police Federation, and take precedence.

Life Assurance

Life assurance benefit is payable on the death, by any cause, of the member or their subscribing partner up to the age of 70 years. Partner benefit levels depend on the age of the subscribing officer.

The payment is made to the 'Trustees of the Defence Police Federation' and the money is then dispersed by the Trustees under the terms of the 'Trust Deed' which would normally be the member's chosen beneficiary. This means that the benefit does not form part of the member's estate and is not, under current legislation, subject to inheritance tax. It is therefore important to keep the beneficiary details up to date.

Terminal Illness Benefit

If a member, aged 68 and under (serving) or 63 and under (retired), is diagnosed as having an illness or injury from which he or she is expected to die within 12 months, they may apply for an advance of 20% of the life assurance benefit. The amount advanced will be deducted from the settlement on death.

Child Death Grant

This benefit is paid upon the death of a dependent child aged between six months and 17 years, inclusive.

Best Doctors

The Best Doctors service provides the reassurance of a confidential expert second medical opinion if a member, their partner, or resident dependent children (under age 18, or 25 if in full time education) are facing a worrying medical condition.

Best Doctors work in conjunction with the patient and their doctor to ensure diagnosis and treatment are correct, providing an independent and comprehensive assessment report. They work with a worldwide panel of specialists.
